Road Commission of Kalamazoo County Recognized

The Road Commission of Kalamazoo County (RCKC) is proud to announce it has been awarded 2 awards by Southwest Branch of the American Public Works Association (APWA). The awards received were the 2017 PROJECT OF THE YEAR AWARD for the Richland/Ross Townships G Avenue – 32nd Street to 37th Street in the category of Transportation – Less Than $5 Million and the 2017 PROJECT OF THE YEAR AWARD for the South Burdick Street – Cork Street to Stockbridge Avenue in the category of Governmental Cooperation.

The RCKC was also awarded the 2017 AWARD OF MERIT by Asphalt Pavement Association of Michigan (APAM) and the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) for projects 10,000 – 30,000 tons, providing the people of Michigan the Highest Quality Asphalt Pavement on Stadium Drive from 9th Street to US-131.

"We are very pleased to be recognized with these awards which speaks to the great RCKC team focused on public service and private/public partnerships to maintain our important road network in Kalamazoo," stated RCKC Managing Director Joanna I. Johnson.
